Curtin Law Office Celebrates 20th Anniversary

MANCHESTER, NH – (May 3, 2011) Curtin Law Office, P.L.L.C., an elder law and estate planning law firm located in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently announced that the firm is celebrating its twentieth year of practice, serving people throughout greater Manchester and the surrounding communities.

Founded in 1991, the firm now staffs a full administrative and paralegal team along with three attorneys – founder, Philip F. Curtin, Sarah S. Ambrogi, a Manchester School Committee member who joined the firm in 1996 with a primary focus on estate planning, and Jennifer Holmes-Griffin, who joined the firm in 2003 and who focuses on elder law and estate planning for individuals and businesses.

“We have enjoyed a wonderful working relationship with a wide range of people throughout greater Manchester,” said Phil Curtin, founder. “At the end of the day it’s the relationships and our ability to help people that we value the most.”

The Curtin Law Office, PLLC, has been part of the Manchester community for more than two decades, helping clients anticipate and plan wisely for the realities and “what ifs” in life such as planning for elder care at home or outside the home, minimizing income and death taxes or avoiding time consuming probate court proceedings. Taking a comprehensive and compassionate approach to their practice, the attorneys and staff have expertise and experience in all aspects of estate planning, elder law and related legal services.
